

Eaton Employees Credit Union Website Privacy Policy

Effective March 31, 2003

Eaton Employees Credit Union is committed to protecting the privacy of its members and other users of this website. We understand that your personal and financial information is important to you. This web site privacy policy explains the information we collect and describes the practice we follow to safeguard your personal financial information.

Secure areas on our website: When you visit a secure area on our website, such as ACCOUNT ACCESS, you will be asked to provide your social security number and PIN number. This allows the credit union to securely regulate entry into your personal financial information. However, you must ensure that your social security number and PIN number are safeguarded against unauthorized use. We strongly recommend you do not share these numbers with anyone.

Email messages: Personal information contained in email sent by members and non-members used by the credit union to answer questions to follow up on suggestions or to improve the level of service we provide. Please be advised however, that due to the technical design of the internet, email messages you send may not be secure against interception during transit by unauthorized individuals outside of the credit union, therefore, you may wish to communicate sensitive or personal information by regular mail, telephone or in person by visiting one of our offices.

Other links from this website: If you follow a link to another website from any of our website pages, you are leaving our site and we cannot be held responsible for any information that may be gathered at a linked site. Although we make efforts to ensure that linked sites have proper privacy protections, this cannot be guaranteed.

Use of personal information: Eaton Employees Credit Union collects information on dates and times of website visits and the number of times each page is visited. This information allows us to track use, measure site traffic and improve site navigation to better serve our members and website visitors. Certain sections of this website may ask you to provide personal information. All information collected by or on behalf of Eaton Employees Credit Union will be used in accordance with the Credit Union's General Privacy Policy, available to you, by requesting a printed copy.
